Courtesy Copy: Original sent to: HARRINGTON, MARK

This courtesy notice is to advise you of action taken on this case. The official notice has been mailed to the attorney or representative indicated above. Any relevant documentation included in the notice was also mailed as part of the official notice.

The above petition has been approved. The approved petition will be stored in this office. If the person for whom you are petitioning is or becomes eligible to apply for adjustment of status, he or she should contact the local INS office to obtain Form I-485, Application for Permanent Residence. A copy of this notice should be submitted with the application, with appropriate fee, to this Service Center. Additional information about eligibility for adjustment of status may be obtained from the local INS office serving the area where he or she lives, or by calling 1-800-375-5283.

If the person for whom you are petitioning decides to apply for a visa outside the United States based upon this petition, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Action on an Approved Application or Petition, with this office to request that we send the petition to the Department of State National Visa Center (NVC).

The NVC processes all approved immigrant visa petitions that require consular action. The NVC also determines which consular post is the appropriate consulate to complete visa processing. It will then forward the approved petition to that consulate.

THIS FORM IS NOT A VISA NOR MAY IT BE USED IN PLACE OF A VISA.

Notice to all customers with a pending I-130 petition - USCIS is now processing Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative, as a visa number becomes available. Filing and approval of an I-130 relative petition is only the first step in helping a relative immigrate to the United States. Eligible family members must wait until there is a visa number available before they can apply for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status to a lawful permanent resident. This process will allow USCIS to concentrate resources first on cases where visas are actually available. This process should not delay the ability of one's relative to apply for an immigrant visa or adjustment of status. Refer to www.state.gov/travel <<http://www.state.gov/travel>> to determine current visa availability dates. Always remember to call customer service if you move while your case is pending. If you have a pending I-130 relative petition, also call customer service if you should decide to withdraw your petition or if you become a U.S. citizen.

This is to inform you that the I-485 in question is still pending. The reason that it is still pending is that USCIS is awaiting NAME CHECK results from the FBI. It may have been a long time since we sent the name, but USCIS has no control of the time it takes. USCIS has confirmed the name is pending. We apologize for the delay.

Dear Qiang,

For your reference, please find attached copies of receipt notices issued in connection with you and your spouse's EAD/AP extension applications.

We have also received a response to our I485 status inquiry. USCIS responded stating that both applicants are pending FBI name check. I did inquire again to argue that USCIS's website shows that the FBI fingerprint has been complete, but USCIS responded back with the same response.

USCIS' usual inquiry procedures requires us to wait another 180 days to submit a follow-up inquiry. I know this is a long time, but many others are going through the same FBI name check procedure. Please understand that neither this office nor USCIS has control over the fingerprint/name check processing time at FBI.

I have marked my calendar to perform another inquiry on March 15, 2007 if your AOS is not approved by then. Hopefully it will be approved....

Thank you,
Marie
